NEWS AFFECTING YOU

Chief's Corner: CMSgt Christopher Clark

As I reflect back on the past 25 years I have spent in service to the nation, there are quite a few things that have served me well and that I enjoy passing on when given the opportunity. Some are values I've inherited growing up on a ranch in the middle of nowhere, while others have been developed from a lifetime of being a student of human interaction and behavior. So, let's dive in on a few that I feel have been instrumental building blocks to a successful career.

OCTOBER 4TH NATIONWIDE TEST OF FEMA EMERGENCY ALERTS

FEMA will conduct a nationwide test of its Emergency Alert System (EAS) and Wireless Emergency Alert (WEA) on Wednesday, October 4, 2023 at approximately 12:20 a.m. MT. If the October 4 test date is postponed, the back-up testing date will be October 11.

HOW WILL THIS AFFECT YOU?

- Wireless phones should receive a test message accompanied by a unique tone and vibrations. The messages will read: "THIS IS A TEST of the National Wireless Emergency Alert System. No action is needed."
- People listening to radio and television broadcasts will hear a one-minute test message similar to the regular monthly test. It will state: "This is a nationwide test of the Emergency Alert System, issued by the Federal Emergency Management Agency, covering the United States from 14:20 to 14:50 hours ET. This is only a test. No action is required by the public."

SEPTEMBER IS SUICIDE PREVENTION MONTH

All month, mental health advocates, prevention organizations, survivors, allies, and community members unite to promote suicide prevention awareness.

If you or someone you know is struggling or in crisis, help is available. Call or text 988. By calling or texting 988, you'll connect with mental health professionals with the 988 Suicide and Crisis Lifeline, formerly known as the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline. Veterans can press "1" after dialing 988 to connect directly to the Veterans Crisis Lifeline which serves our nation's Veterans, service members, National Guard and Reserve members, and those who support them. For texts, Veterans should continue to text the Veterans Crisis Lifeline short code: 838255.
